SHINKO ELECTRIC INDUSTRIES CO., LTD. Receives Intel's Prestigious Supplier Continuous Quality Improvement Award

NAGANO, Japan, April 12, 2012 – SHINKO ELECTRIC INDUSTRIES CO., LTD. has been recognized as one of nine companies receiving Intel Corporation's prestigious Supplier Continuous Quality Improvement (SCQI) award for their performance in 2011. Recognizing extraordinary commitment to quality and exceptional performance to Intel's goals, this award is Intel's highest honor for its suppliers acknowledging world-class, outstanding performance. SHINKO ELECTRIC INDUSTRIES CO., LTD. provided plastic laminated packages and heat spreaders deemed vital to Intel's success.

"I feel much honored that we were able to be awarded as a SCQI winner. I believe the award is a gift that Shinko has received from Intel for our continuous innovation and activities as a manufacturer. The award is sure to be recognized as an asset to all at Shinko and we look forward to meeting the challenges in the year 2012," said Fumio Kuraishi, president, SHINKO ELECTRIC INDUSTRIES CO., LTD.

"Congratulations to Shinko for winning Intel's prestigious SCQI award," said Jacklyn A. Sturm, vice president, Technology Manufacturing Group and Global Sourcing and Procurement general manager, Intel Corporation. "In 2011, Shinko delivered outstanding Operational Excellence and has been a true technology and collaboration partner to Intel. We look forward to Shinko's continued excellence in 2012."

The SCQI award is part of Intel's Supplier Continuous Quality Improvement program, which encourages Intel's key suppliers to strive for excellence and continuous improvement. To qualify for SCQI status, suppliers must score at least 95 percent on a report card that assesses performance and ability to meet cost, quality, availability, technology, environmental, social and governance goals. Suppliers must also achieve 90 percent or greater on a challenging improvement plan and demonstrate solid quality and business systems. Additional information about the SCQI program is available at <http://intel.com/go/quality>.

A celebration to honor SCQI award winners will be held in Santa Clara, California. In addition, there was an announcement on Intel's website at <http://intel.com/>.
